

Privacy Policy

Net Factory is committed to honouring the privacy of our visitors and customers and is registered with the Government Public UK Data Protection Registrar. What information does Net Factory receive and how do we use it?

Upon purchasing services from Net Factory, we ask you for your name, contact information, preferences, and certain demographic information. This information lets us provide personalized services and communicate separately with you. We also use aggregated information about the use of our services to evaluate our users' preferences and improve our website and services.

May I choose what information I disclose?

While we need certain information to provide the requested services, some requested information is optional and may be given at your discretion.

May I choose what communications I receive?

Yes. Net Factory allows you to tailor the types of email messages and other communications you receive from us. You can elect not to receive communications from us when you signup.

What if I need to review or change the personal information I previously disclosed?

We encourage our customers to update and edit their personal information and keep it current. You can easily correct or update your personal information at any time via our website.

What kind of security is used to protect my information?

We store all user information in secure databases protected via a variety of access controls. This data is accessed only for the purposes specified in this privacy statement.

Who has access to my information?

We do not share personally identifiable data with other companies (apart from those acting as our agents in providing our Service to you, who agree to use it only for that purpose).

Who should I contact if I have any questions regarding my privacy?

Please contact us directly at privacy@net-factory.biz
